

Discounted subscriptions to “History of Political Economy” for AISPE members

AISPE is pleased to announce that Duke University Press offers its members discounted subscriptions to History of Political Economy at a rate of $70 for regular members and $35 for students and young scholars.

AISPE Board is very grateful to HOPE Editors for this generous offer: a great opportunity for our AISPE community of scholars/historians of economics/economic thought.

During the process of subscription, you just need to let Duke University Press know that you are an AISPE member in order to get the discount.
